

Appeal to trace owners of stolen items

POLICE have recovered graveyard ornaments and a quantity of tools from a vehicle in Lytham, which they are trying to reunite with their rightful owners.

Around 1.30am on Friday 8th November, officers carried out a search of a vehicle parked suspiciously outside a graveyard on Saltcoates Road in Lytham and recovered numerous graveyard ornaments and tools. Officers have checked with nearby Saltcoates Catholic Church but the items do not belong to them.

PC Cath Britton said: "These items will no doubt be of huge sentimental value to somebody so I would ask people to take a close look at the photograph and anybody that recognises any of these items I would urge them to contact Lancashire Police on 101 quoting crime reference AL1302703. "

A 41 year old man from Preston was arrested on suspicion of theft and possession of an offensive weapon and released on police bail until 13th January pending further enquires.
