

Boxing bobbies to take on fire, ambulance and prison service in charity fight night

On 1st November 2014 Police officers and staff from a variety of roles across Lancashire are teaming up with their fire, ambulance and prison service colleagues for a boxing match to raise money for charity.

DC Tom Wignall, DC Andy Gilmour PC Ash Patel, Phil Swindells, DC Guy Fitzgerald, PCSO Tom Archer, PC Lynsey Fairhurst, Andy Hacking, PC Liam Mahon, PC Dave Render, PC Joe Killalea and PC Tim Rothwell will be taking on their fire, ambulance and prison counterparts at Evoque nightclub, Preston on Saturday 1 November in aid of Bradley Moyles, a 8-year-old Cystic Fibrosis sufferer, who needs new equipment to improve his living condition.

Organised by Lee Brown events, tickets costing £20 per person are being sold to watch the bout, with £10 from every ticket sold going to the cause. The doors will open at 5.30pm, with the first fight starting at 6.30pm.

DC Tom Wignall who works at Preston said: “We are all looking forward to getting in the ring and taking on our emergency service colleagues after months of training.

“As with any kind of sporting event between the services, there has been lots of banter and competition between us, all in good spirits, to get us prepared for the night.

“We are all delighted to be doing this for such a good cause and we know just how much every penny will go towards trying to help Brandon live a relatively normal life, despite suffering from cystic fibrosis.

“We want to raise as much money as we can for Brandon so I am urging as many people as possible to buy tickets. I am sure plenty of people would love to see police officers taking a punch or two, so come along!

“All donations are really appreciated.”

Tickets can be bought by calling 07875 000 654 or by emailing leebrownerevents@gmail.com. People can also donate at www.justgiving.com/simplythevest
